Reasons for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 06/09/2008 appeal brief in the application of Alicherry et al. for the "Routing and design in K-shared network" filed 09/05/2003. Applicant's argument and remark with regard to the rejection under 35 USC 103 are persuasive. The claims have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention. Furthermore, the rejections of record under 35 USC 103 of claims 1-5, 11-21, 27-32 are withdrawn as evidence by discussion follows.

2. Claims 1-32 are allowable.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a no obvious improvement over the prior art of record. The improvement comprises: a method of determining a route for a demand in a network, wherein the network comprises primary paths and secondary paths, and at least two secondary paths may share a given link, the method comprising the steps of: transforming a graph representing the network, wherein edges of the graph represent channels associated with paths and nodes of the graph represent nodes of the network, the transformation being performed such that costs associated with the edges reflect costs of using channels in secondary paths; and finding the shortest path between nodes corresponding to the demand in the transformed graph, the shortest path representing the least-cost path in the network over which the demand may be routed, and wherein a pair of channels may be represented as $l.\sup.i$ and $m.\sup.j$ incident on a node u such that the channel connectivity representation step further comprises: when the pair of channels are already connected at u , adding a zero-cost edge between $u(l, i)$ and $u(m, j)$; and otherwise, when both of the channels have degrees less than a value K at u , connecting them with an edge having a cost ϵ , where cost ϵ is greater than zero and substantially smaller than one, as expressly recited in the claims.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Man U. Phan whose telephone number is (571) 272-3149. The examiner can normally be reached Monday through Friday from 6:00 am to 3:00 pm.
